

INTERNATIONAL CENTRE
FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION®

New York

November 12, 2014

6:00 PM

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS WITH RUSSIAN NEXUS: WHY NOT NEW YORK LAW?

You are invited to participate in a dynamic discussion exploring the application of New York law to international business with Russian nexus. Financial transactions, transportation arrangements, and sales contracts often use New York law for its choice of law clause. What are the advantages and specific features of New York law that fostered its popularity? A panel of international legal experts will discuss specific areas of New York law as well as address options for dispute resolution in New York and share practical strategies.

Cooperative Entities

Sponsor

Opening Remarks

Mikhail A. Kalugin, Economic Section, Embassy of Russian Federation, Washington, D.C.
(Invited)

Vladimir Khvalei, Russian Arbitration Association, Moscow

Miroslava Schierholz, International Centre for Dispute Resolution, New York

Moderator

Gene Burd, Arnall Golden Gregory LLP, Washington, D.C.

Speakers

John Fellas, Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, New York

Leonard Kirsch, McBreen & Kopko, New York

Lester Schiefelbein, Schiefelbein Global Dispute Resolution; Former Vice President and Deputy General Counsel, Lockheed Martin, San Francisco

Alexey Teterin, Trade Representation of the Russian Federation in the USA, Washington D.C.

Closing Remarks

Serhiy Hoshovsky, Hoshovsky Law Firm LLC, New York

DATE: November 12, 2014

TIME:
Registration 6:00 PM
Discussion 6:30 - 8:00 PM
Reception 8:00 PM

LOCATION: AAA/ICDR Offices
150 E. 42nd Street
17th Floor
New York, NY

There is no charge to attend this program.

Registration Form

Please Print or Type

Email Completed Form to: Mandy Sawier at SawierM@adr.org

First Name

Last Name

Job Title

Company

City, State

Country

Phone

Email